Promise Letter

I promise that I will only use the password given to me to watch the Traveling Lantern show in my home with my family.

I promise not to record the show.

I promise not to give the password to anyone else and I promise never to put it on the internet (sooperbad!!!)

I understand that the person who gave me the password is responsible and so I will be very careful to use it the way I have promised to.

I promise to have an awesome summer and laugh a lot and remember to wash my hands.

Signed: _____

OK to write invisibly with your finger.

You did it, THANK YOU, YOU ROCK!
